We currently have vacancies for Parent Governors at both King Henry VIII School and Croesyceiliog School. If you think you have something to offer our school – either your professional expertise or you have an interest in education, please come and speak to members of our Governing Body and Executive Headteacher.

What qualities do you need to be a School Governor?

- A desire to improve children's educational attainment
- Time to spare to prepare for and attend meetings
- A willingness to learn and ask questions
- The capacity to work as part of a team and appreciate the views and contribution of others
- The ability to respect confidentiality
